Investigation – The Compliance Officer or their designee will initiate an investigation, which may include interviewing, consulting with, and/or requesting a written response to the issues raised in the complaint from any individual the Compliance Officer believes to have relevant information, Travelers Aid Society of San Diego staff and members of the public. The Compliance Officer may also hold an informal hearing at their discretion.

Representation - The complaining party, and any party against whom the complaint is directed, has the right to have a representative.

Findings and Notification - The Compliance Officer will prepare and provide the complaining party, and all other parties involved, a final report containing a summary of the investigation, written findings, and a proposed disposition. This report will be provided to the complaining party and Travelers Aid Society of San Diego within 45 calendar days of the filing of the formal complaint.

Final Disposition - The disposition proposed by the Compliance Officer will be put into effect promptly. The complaining party or any party against whom the complaint or the proposed disposition is directed may appeal. The appeal to the Chief Executive Officer (as set forth below) will not suspend the implementation of the disposition proposed by the Compliance Officer, except in those circumstances where the SANDAG Chief Executive Officer decides that good cause exists making the suspension of implementation appropriate.

4. Appeal

Within 10 calendar days of the issuance of the final report, the complaining party may appeal to the SANDAG Chief Executive Officer.

A complaining party may appeal by filing a written request for review by the SANDAG Chief Executive Officer.

The written request for review must specify the particular substantive, and/or procedural basis for the appeal, and must be made on grounds other than general dissatisfaction with the proposed disposition. Furthermore, the appeal must be directed only to issues raised in the formal complaint as filed or to procedural errors in the conduct of the complaint procedure itself, and not to new issues.

The review by the Chief Executive Officer or their designee normally will be limited to the following considerations: Were the proper facts and criteria brought to bear on the decision? Were improper or extraneous facts or criteria brought to bear on the decision that substantially affected the decision to the detriment of the complaining party? Were there any procedural irregularities that substantially affected the outcome of the matter to the detriment of the complaining party? Given proper facts, criteria, and procedure, was the decision one that a person in the position of the decision-maker might reasonably have made?

A copy of the Chief Executive Officer's written decision will be expected within 30 calendar days of the filing of the appeal and shall be sent to all parties involved and, if appropriate, to persons whose authority will be needed to carry out the disposition. The deadline may be extended by the Chief Executive Officer for good cause. The decision of the Chief Executive Officer or their designee on the appeal will be SANDAG's final decision.

5. File with the FTA - Any person who believes themselves or any specific class of persons to be subjected to discrimination prohibited by ADA or Title VI may also file a written complaint with the FTA. A complaint should be filed no later than 180 days after the date of the alleged discrimination unless the time for filing is extended by FTA.
